Dear Father,

I hope this letter will reach you, as it is the most important of all I'm writing this on an old bill head because I haven't time to go down town and I haven't any other. Mrs Watson asked me to write a letter this morning about 20 minutes after 8 and as this is Friday and we were to have three tests today I told her I didn't have any time as I wanted to get to school at eight 30. She said the letter had to go this morning and I said that I had only 15 minutes to get to school and that couldn't do it till I came back for lunch. She pulled my hair and told me she did not want to see my face again today. I went up in my room and got my books and when I came down she said she was going get me a room in some weddick ladies house and told me to pack and she would bring over in the morning. Now what shall
